The Bill was regarded with some apprehension asgiving the Registrar-General powers of too large and inquisitorial a nature, and in order to meet the objections raised to it it was provided amongst other things that any one aggrieved by the action of the Registrar-General might demand to have the case committed for trial before a Magistrate. That ended 30th June last at the rate of 7 per cent. is what was done on this occasion. Mr. Lock-HART refused to comply with the demand, not in express terms certainly, but by simply do not figure in the peerage of their own counthough it is difficult to divine what worthy however, is expected not only to be actuated

Count Mitkiewicz would make a claimed their custody, the Court had to de--cide on what was to be done with them The Acting Chief Justice in his judgment said it was the opinion of the Court that it was for the interest of them all to remain at the hospital, and the Chairman had stated it up with an Arabian Nights tale of costly prehis readiness to take charge of them in their own interest. His Honour went on to say that the publicity given to this matter must Kuk, which he said was a purely benevolent occupied by a retail kerosine dealer. The aim, as the risk as much as possible. The inhabitants will be seen, is a very benevolent one indeed, but unfortunately the methods of the Society leave much to be desired. It can hardly be considered satisfactory in a British colony that Chinese runners, called detectives, should have power to arrest persons without a warrant. Who knows what squeezing and corruption may go on under such a system? Blackmail might be levied from every emigrant. The Acting Chief Justice says Correspondents are requested to forward their name | the Society maintains a number of detectives at its own expense, and he adds that it is within his personal knowledge that it has completely burnt out, while No. 3 has the top girl was still lying on the bed. On the way to the house a matter of abstract principle we cannot see how an imperium in imperio and the power of arrest without legal warrant can ever be justified; the system contains the germs of evil, even if the evil has not yet developed itself. But on the next point we must join issue with Mr. Russell. He says that for want of a "home" or building to house such girls the society must be much hampered in its action, and the hospital authorities had

The case of the man Ching Sam, for whose rendition the Chinese Government has been seeking since the 19th February last, at length reached its termination vesterday, when, as will appear in our Police Intelligence, no witnesses in the last charge being forthcoming, the prisoner was discharged. Shortly before the original arrest of this man in February last, a communication was made by the local Government to the Viceroy Canton intimating that a number of known bad characters were present in the colony, in consequence of which an application for the rendition of seven of their number was made. A REMARKABLE CASE. Under the above beading the Doncaster Reporter of July 6th. 1887, publishes the following in its editorial columns-Our readers may recall the circumstance of a young clerk, named Arthur Richold, falling insensible on the Wheatley Lane in this town some time ago, and being picked up, as he contwo gentlemen to the office of F. W. Fisher, DAY, the 12th October, at DAYLIGHT. Esq., the solicitor who employed him. On restoring him to consciousness it was ascertained that he was afflicted with what seemed to be an incurable disease. When he was able to speak he said he had been to his dinner and was on his way back to his work, when suddenly his head was in a whirl and he fell in the street like a man who is knocked down. On coming to his senses in the selicitor's office he thought what this might mean, and feared he was going to have a fit of illness, which we all know is a very care for. With this in his mind he at once sought the

had been attacked. They questioned him, and the nervous system resulting from general defriends by death. The coming on of this strange of interest both to sick and well. He had noticed and face began to have a yellow look; there was teeth in the morning; the tongue costed; and that most painful and troublesome silment—the and back and a sense of fulness on the right side proved to be the terrible fact. The secretions from the kidneys would be scanty and highcoloured, with a kind of gritty or sandy deposit

These things had troubled Mr. Richold a long Douglas Steamship Company, Limited-$47 per time, and after his fall in the street he clearly perceived that the fit of giddiness was nothing went from one physician to another in search of a core that his wife and little ones might not come to want is very pathetic and touching. and had to give it up. This was a sad calamity. He wasappalled to think how he should be able to live. But God raised up friends who helped to keep the welf from the door. He then went to the seaside at Walton-on-the-Naze, but neither the change, northe physicians who treated him there, did any good. All being without avail he visited vantage might happen to him in the metropolis. How wonderful, indeed, are the ways of Providence, which dashes down our highest hopes and then helps us when we least expect it. While in London he stated his condition to a friend, who strongly advised him to try a medicine A. S. Watson & Co., Limited-65 per cent. which he called Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, saying it was gennine and honest, and often cured tle of a chemist in Pimlico, and began using it faith or hope, and the public may, therefore, judge of his surprise and pleasure when after taking a few doses he felt great relief. He could symptoms we have named abated; the dark spots which had floated before his eyes like smuts of soot, gradually disappeared, and his strength increased. Before this time his knees would knock together whenever he tried to walk. So encouraged was be now that he kept on using Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup until it ended in completely curing him. In speaking of his wonderful recovery, Mr. Richold says it made him think of poor Robinson Crusce, and his deliverance from captivity on his island in the sea; and added, " But for Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup the grass would now be growing over my grave."

Our readers can rest assured of the strict truth of all the statements in this most remarkable case, as Mr. Richold (now residing at Swiss Cottage, .Walton on the Naze) belongs to one of the oldest and most respected families in the beautiful village of Long Melford, Suffolk, and his personal character is attested by so high an authority as the Rev. C. J. Martyn, rector of that parish, besides other excellent names. We have deemed the case of such importance to the public as to justify us in giving this short account of it in our columns.
